Worship Theme: The God Who Bends Low to Lift Us High

YOU'VE ALREADY WON

Call to Worship

Isaiah 41:10

Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Invocation

CORNERSTONE

GREAT ARE YOU LORD

Corporate Confession of Sin

O Lord, no day of our life has passed that has not proven us guilty. Prayers have been uttered from prayerless hearts; and praise has been often praiseless sound. Our best services are filthy rags. We have been guilty of pride and unfaithfulness, of failure to seek Your mind in Your Word, of failure to seek Your face in our daily living. But though our sins rise to heaven, Your mercy soars above them. Though our unrighteousness drags us down to the depths, Your righteousness lifts us, with greater power, to Your throne. Grant us to hear Your Voice assuring us that— by Your wounds we are healed, by Your brokenness, we are made whole, by Your descent into darkness; we are brought into dazzling, eternal light. Give us joyful broken-heartedness; keep us always clinging to Your cross, In Jesus' Name, Amen. -Valley of Vision (adaptation)

Assurance of God's Pardoning Grace

Romans 5:8

But God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
